Supporting Evidence: Mr. Figueroa is considered in violation of his conditions of supervised release by being unsuccessfully discharged from the residential reentry center (RRC) on August 3, 2011, for failing to abide by the facility rules and requirements.

On August 3, 2011, the undersigned officer received notice from RRC staff that Mr. Figueroa made statements indicating he wanted to leave the facility. In addition, he told staff he was going to "snap" and asked them to make false statements so he could be removed. While speaking to staff, Mr. Figueroa was displaying aggressive and threatening body posture.

The director of the RRC facility, Lori Morrow, was contacted and decided Mr. Figueroa should be removed from the program due to safety concerns for both staff and residents.
